The agenda for the meeting was as follows:

1. Welcome and review of day's objective
2. URET presentation by FAA/AOZ
3. ARTS data discussion
4. FAA data exchange policy
5. Discussion of proposed Select Committee briefing to Steering Committee
6. Future meeting dates and adjournment

Only items 1, 2, 5 and 6 were addressed.

URET Presentation:

The URET briefing was in 3 parts:

- Summary of Addendum 1 Discussion of URET CCLD: Joe Celio reminded the group of the treatment of URET in Addendum 1, in particular, the anticipated benefits of the deployment.
- Near-Term URET Restriction Relaxation Assessment Activities: Mike Burski summarized activities underway at ZID and ZME to identify and exploit opportunities to use URET to relax static restrictions.
- Analysis of Route and Altitude Restrictions for FFP1: Joe Celio outlined CAASD analysis activities to identify static restrictions that are candidates for relaxation. This effort supports the work that Mike Burski described and is expected to lead to a methodology that can be applied at all URET CCLD sites.

CAASD plans to talk with airlines about restrictions they find most disruptive and to factor this information into the analysis activity described by Joe Celio. It was agreed that Ray Hilton would serve as the airline point of contact for these discussions and that Agam Sinha would be the CAASD point of contact.

Proposed Select Committee Briefing to Steering Committee:

Margaret Jenny summarized the briefing planned for the RTCA Free Flight Steering Committee during the week of Aug 9.

Future Meeting Dates:

The next meeting is planned for Sep 14.
